

JESUS SHAPED RELATIONSHIPS

Anger: The Great Destroyer of Relationships

Rick Bayer

May 27, 2018

Matthew 5:21-26

Anger is that feeling other people are causing my unhappiness and need to be punished.

Three ways we can 'murder' someone (vs. 22):

- a) Anger
- b) Contempt "Raca"
- c) Malice "You fool"

Questions for Discipleship Group and/or Personal Study

What tends to get you angry in a given week?

Do you tend to lift the lid and spew your anger or keep the lid closed and stew on your anger? What is wrong with both?

Read Matthew 5:21-26.

How does Jesus link murder and anger?

If Jesus were to put an 'anger thermometer' under your tongue, what would it reveal about your health?

What is it going to take for you to heal?

How can your group help?

Questions/Comments about today's message?

Text: 778-846-3225 Email: rick@gracepoint.ca

twitter: @gracepointca